GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY AT BUTLER, IND., P.M.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

BUTLER, Ind., August 31.

The first outdoor demonstration of the Republicans in this county was held in this place to-day. Notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather, there was a large turnout in the forenoon and continuous all day. Speeches were made by Gen. Wm. Grose, of Indianapolis, Gen. Wm. Cumback, of Greensburg, Gen. Wm. Harrow, of Fort Wayne, and Col. Gilbert, of Indianapolis. The last named is the gallant officer who commanded the Seventy-fourth Indiana Regiment, and who was severely wounded at Chickamauga. He is a fine speaker, and his address was listened to with great interest. The meeting was a perfect success in every respect. The Democrats are completely demoralized, and will not attempt to hold a meeting in this county.

From Our Special Correspondent.

ST. LOUIS, August 31, 1872.

The rebel element throughout Missouri is still lying in wait with boldness, but the stalwart Republicans are determined on defeating the local men of the State, they have been nominated at Cincinnati. The rebels are now whistling to keep their courage up, and are attempting to make it appear that they are in the majority. They are not, however, and the election will be thoroughly protected. Every Republican will be at the polls, no matter how many they may be attempted to be driven away. The rebels have recently unearthed a certain minister addicted to prominent rebelism, named Ide, the head of the "Ide Colony," which is going to the South, for the purpose of [illegible] for [illegible]. It is not a very agreeable community to possess in the present vicinity, but in reality is intimately connected with the rebellion. It may be a supplement, or an institution to the "Ku-Klux Klan," or only a temporary white gilded tip to such. Time will tell. This and many other events besides, however, that is in the hands of the Opposition party in Missouri to prepare an organization to break down the power of Democratic supremacy. It is really advised that everybody should vote at the next election, and in case rain, to themselves, because it is the duty of every Democratic party cannot take care, should vote under the shelter of the umbrella, and with all the confidence.
